- Upon filing bankruptcy, your bank may stop automatic payments from your checking or savings accounts. It is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to follow-up with your bank to make arrangements for continued payments.
- If you are planning on keeping your secured property (i.e. your car, your house) you must continue to make your payments each month and keep current on those payments. Your bank may stop sending you loan payment coupons or monthly billing statements, however, you must continue to make your payments regardless.
- Bankruptcy will not discharge these debts, but they must be listed in this worksheet:
 - student loans
 - fraud and restitution
 - child support
 - some taxes
 - joint debts you are ordered to pay in a divorce decree
- You are required to complete a credit counseling course before you can file bankruptcy. After filing bankruptcy, you are required to complete a post counseling financial management course in order for you to receive a discharge from the bankruptcy court. Included in this folder is a list of credit counseling agencies that you may contact to arrange for these courses.

A credit report will be obtained for purposes of reviewing and listing all of your liabilities. Please sign below authorizing Heller & Thyen, P.A. to obtain your credit file.
